

CPD Event – Wednesday 4th November 2015

Gestalt Live Supervision: Bringing Clinical Theory Alive!

With Sally Denham- Vaughan

In this one day workshop we will focus on creating a safe, and stimulating space where you can reflect on your clinical practice as a psychotherapist, counsellor or coach and experiment with new approaches. Participants will gain feedback on their practice through live supervision or case discussion and also have opportunities to discuss relevant theory emerging from the work.

Sally is a Gestalt Psychotherapist, Supervisor, Trainer, Accredited Organisational Practitioner, Coach, writer and editorial advisor to the British Gestalt Journal. She has been a Co-Director of both psychotherapy and organisational change programmes in the UK. Originally trained as a Clinical and Counselling Psychologist, Sally worked for many years in the British National Health Service clinically leading and managing a range of services provided to Adults with Mental Health Problems. She is a Faculty member of the International Gestalt in Organisations programme based in Turin, Italy, Academic Adviser on the Doctoral Programme at Metanoia Institute in London, International Faculty Associate at Pacific Gestalt Institute, International Board Adviser at The Relational Center, Los Angeles and Co-founder of Relational Change, (www.relationalchange.org), an international organisation committed to promoting developments in Relational theory and practice.
