CPD Event – Saturday 18th April 2015

Therapist Self-Disclosure

With Jane Pendlebury MBACP

The concept & intention of this workshop is to enable participants to explore this tricky subject in a safe environment. There will be some theoretical background, ethical viewpoints & plenty of space to explore our own viewpoint. It's amazing what can come up once we've been given permission to talk about this topic. The day is open to all qualified therapists, whatever their modality, bearing in mind that my core belief & working system is PCA.

Jane Pendlebury is a mature counselling therapist & supervisor, with experience of working for public, private & voluntary sectors, in various workplace situations. She is an independent practitioner and has vast experience of working with the impact of life events. Her work is based upon the Person-Centred Approach. Jane qualified as a therapist in Lancashire where she worked for a couple of years before re-locating to Herefordshire 12 years ago. For further information please visit Jane's web page: janes-counselling.co.uk BACP www.bacp.co.uk; BAPCA www.bapca.co.uk;
