CPD Event – Friday 15th May 2015

Introduction to Play Therapy

With Tina Morgan

An experiential play therapy workshop giving participants the opportunity to use play and the creative arts to communicate with children and young people. The workshop will include a mix of directive and non-directive activities that can be adapted for work with adults. Activities will include art therapy, drama therapy, sand tray, movement and sensory play.

Tina is a qualified and accredited Play Therapist, specialising in working with children and young people who have experienced domestic and sexual abuse, trauma and emotional difficulties. Tina has over 23 years of experience working with vulnerable families and using play and creative art therapies to help children at risk of harm, to express and overcome their experiences. Through her long service at Women's Aid Monmouthshire, play therapy has been used to help traumatised children with issues such as PTSD and attachment difficulties, whilst strengthening the parent child relationship and increasing physical and emotional safety. Tina is also a qualified and experienced Forest School Leader, Counsellor and Nursery Nurse.
