

LIVE PRACTICUMS - THE DIALOGIC APPROACH

October 2015 – June 2016

Eight Friday meetings from 10.30 – 3.30pm

With Anne Pettit

An opportunity for individuals to meet in a small group and explore the dialogic approach applying theory to practice. In supporting a heightened awareness and practice of the dialogic approach, the format will involve the theoretical underpinning of this approach and an opportunity to develop a skilled dialogic, process focussed perspective within your work.

Anne Pettit is a UKCP reg. Gestalt Psychotherapist, Supervisor and founding director of Gestalt Centre Wales. She began her training in 1989 and has had a Private practice for 16 years. She sees individuals, facilitates women groups, alongside a Supervisory Practice of eight years she also co-ordinates and runs CPD events. She has extensive experience in the NHS, where she has worked for 30 years.

Having recently organised a successful CPD event with Rich Hycner she has been further inspired, endorsing her own inherent way of working dialogically. Enthused to maintain momentum she wants to support and inspire others to bring this form of psychotherapeutic artistry to the field through a series of live practicums.
